Dear Anne,

I am an experienced actor seeking representation with your agency. Enclosed is my headshot and biography for your consideration.

You might like to note that I'm also the co-writer of a feature film that recently received development funding from ScreenWest.

Also enclosed is a flyer for the premier stage production of 'Death in Wanneroo' by acclaimed local playwright, Sam Crosby. In it I perform the lead role of Adrian Westlake, a crooked real estate agent. I would like to invite you and a guest to attend our opening night and receive complimentary champagne on your arrival. If you prefer, you are welcome to attend any other night of your choice.

I will telephone you in a few days to arrange your complimentary tickets and set up a time to meet with you. In the meantime you can contact me on the telephone numbers or email address above.

Kind regards,

Jaison Zouras

Dear Tyler,

My name is Li Ming and I am a freelance actor. I would like to be considered for roles you may be casting now or in the future.

Since graduating last year from the three-year acting course at The Actors' Studio, I have performed lead roles in two short film productions, one for AFTRS, and one for exciting new director, Sam Hazlingski, called "Ask Ed" - which has been selected as a finalist in this year's Reel Film Festival. I also appear in a television commercial for Redwood Homes currently on air.

I have attached my headshot and resume for your files. I also have a showreel that is available upon request on DVD or you can view it along with my other professional information online at the AT2 website: www.at2.com.au/Li.Ming.Chi

I believe I have a lot to offer (including fluency in three languages) and I would enjoy the opportunity to demonstrate this to you at an interview or general audition. I will telephone your office next week to arrange a convenient time.

Best wishes,

Li Ming Chi

Dear Simon,

I would like to introduce myself to you having recently completed a BA in Musical Theatre at the University of Ballarat. I am now available for roles with your theatre company.

As well as formal training, I have professional experience as a dancer on television shows and music videos. A recent highlight was coming runner-up in "Charleston Challenge" at this years' Melbourne Swing Festival, and I can contribute my skills in numerous ballroom as well as contemporary dance styles to any production that requires them.

You will find this information on my biography that I have enclosed along with my headshot. You can view more photographs and information on my website, www.danielkovak.com.au

I am continuing training to expand my skills and am currently taking master classes in acting with Susan Francis and I attend ongoing singing lessons.

I would enjoy meeting with you and performing for you at your next round of general auditions. I will contact you by telephone next week to arrange these or you can contact me on the mobile number or email address above.

Yours faithfully,

Daniel Kovak

Dear Carol,

I am a trained and experienced actor and would like to be considered for suitable roles in your upcoming films. For your perusal I have enclosed my headshot and biography.

I have training in acting and have gained experience performing in several amateur theatre productions with Lismore Theatre Company. A highlight was playing a lead role in the world's first amateur production of Australia's longest running professional play, He Died With a Falafel in His Hand.

Other skills that I can offer a production include stage combat, having trained in it at the Australian Acting Academy in Brisbane. I have also been learning Karate for over ten years and am currently 2nd dan black belt.

I am willing to travel to Queensland or elsewhere in Australia for work or relocate if necessary.

I will phone you shortly to arrange an interview. In the meantime, you can contact me on the above telephone numbers or email address.

Yours sincerely,

Fiona Gaffney
